

Accessibility Statement - All Seasons Guest House, Douglas Isle of Man

All Seasons is a small purpose built Victorian Guest House situated on Clifton Terrace and has no ground floor bedrooms.

All Seasons is about one and a half miles from the ferry terminal, we are on the main bus route serving the north of the Island, the Airport is approximately ten miles away, a frequent bus service to Douglas is available or a Taxi to our door should cost around 18.00 GBP

The climb from the Promenade is particularly steep as the roadway makes its way to upper Douglas, All Seasons is three hundred yards from the Promenade.

All Seasons does not have a car park, parking is on-road parking and cannot be guaranteed.

Outside All Seasons are three steps to the front door.

Reception, Lounge and Dining room are all on the ground floor, from the hallway there are fourteen stairs to the first floor bedrooms

Unfortunately we are unable to accommodate full time wheel chair users as All Seasons does not have a lift. The corridors are narrow the stair case to the first floor has two levels and turns one hundred and eighty degrees.
