

KING WILLIAM'S COLLEGE

SCHOOL HOUSE ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

LOCATION King William's College is situated in Castletown, the south of the Isle of Man. It is on the A5 road to Douglas. School House is part of the main building situated opposite the Chapel at the rear of the building. Visitors are required to use the main car park during their stay. The building is on 3 levels with the accommodation being on the 1st and 2nd floors. There are bathrooms on the 1st and 2nd floors. Access is by stairs only and would not be suitable for wheelchairs.

ENTRANCE The entrance is on the ground floor through a front door and then an inside door which has a code pad. The code will be given prior to arrival or you will be met by one of the Porters. There are stairs to access the property.

FIRST FLOOR There is a kitchen and a large lounge. There is 1 single room, 1 twin room and 3 triple rooms. There are shared toilet and shower facilities on this floor.

SECOND FLOOR There are 18 single rooms, 9 twin rooms and 1 triple room on this floor. There are shared toilet and shower facilities and a small kitchen. There is only stair access to this floor.

Porters are on call and will be available should assistance be required, guests will be met on arrival and given contact details and instructions regarding emergency procedures.

School House is used by our girl boarders so is only available during the holiday periods, the House Mother and boarding tutors reside on the premises so we respectfully ask that their privacy is maintained and noise is kept to a minimum.

As we are a boarding school child protection and safeguarding is extremely important. Guests may be required to wear visitor lanyards whilst on school grounds. Catering can only be offered to groups of 20 or more.

Unfortunately we do not allow pets, should you wish to bring your assistance dog please contact us to discuss your requirements.
