Route

1. Leaving Baldrine Halt, cross the railway line and walk up the very quiet lane for 1 mile to Conrhenny Plantation.
2. Follow the lane round to the right in front of the plantation as it joins the B20.
3. When you meet another minor road, the B12, turn right and continue along here for 0.5 miles.
4. As the road bears sharply to the right, take the footpath through Axnfell Plantation.
5. Continue on the clearly defined and signposted footpath as it zig-zags through the plantation down to Glen Roy.
6. Turn right and follow the river to Laxey Glen Gardens.
7. Leave the gardens, keeping Laxey Flour Mill on your right.
8. Turn left to Laxey village where the Manx Electric Railway (MER) station can be found across the main road. The Great Laxey Mines Railway and Snaefell Wheel are just beyond, and here you will spot the Great Laxey Wheel a little further up the Valley.
