WELCOME TO THE ESPLANADE

We look forward to welcoming you to our fully refurbished apartment based in a grand 19th Century Georgian style end terrace, located in the centre of the two-mile Victorian seaside promenade in Douglas, the capital city of the Isle of Man.

The Esplanade terrace was constructed in 1846 in the grounds of the Castle Mona and was designed by local architect, John Robinson, who was responsible for designing many of the elegant buildings that can be found around Douglas, such as the Old Courthouse on Athol Street, Falcon Cliff, & The Bank of Mona, more colloquially known as “The Wedding Cake” which now houses the Island’s parliament, Tynwald.
