

Stargazers Welcome Scheme

The Isle of Man has long been known for having dark night skies, a valued attribute of the rural character and tranquility of the Island. On a clear night the sky of the Isle of Man is simply stunning as many astronomical sights can be seen through the naked eye with even more seen through a telescope or binoculars. The Island has an incredible 26 dark sky discovery sites and the Stargazers Welcome Scheme is a way of marketing your property to take full advantage of this fact. This scheme has been developed to help promote the Island to a new type of visitor and to ensure that their particular needs are met at participating venues.
