

Access Statement Knockaloe Beg Hostels and Wigwam cabins

Introduction Knockaloe Beg Farm has a mixture of accommodation facilities on it. The Guest House has an M1 accessibility Awards and the Byre and The Stables have M2. The Hostels and Glamping are less suitable for those with mobility problems.

The Farm is 0.6 miles up a rough farm lane, 2 miles from the small city of Peel

Pre-Arrival

- Booking is via telephone, email or online
- Please let us know of any additional requirements before you arrive

Arrival & Car Parking Facilities

- There is ample parking in the Farmyard
- The properties are always unlocked on arrival so you can go straight in
 - There is one disabled parking space available – please book in advance.
 - Assistance with luggage can be given on arrival

Upper Room Bunkhouse

- The Bunkhouse is on the first floor and accessed by 12 wooden steps 210mm high through a Fire door in the Barn.
- Toilets and showers are on the ground floor and shared with members of the public visiting the Farm.

The Bothy

- The Bothy is accessed via 4 uneven height steps up to 380mm high. These are 300 years old and unsuitable for those with mobility problems, although there is a handrail on both sides.
- The Bothy is a first floor property with showers across the yard and a small toilet and basin at the base of the steps.

Glamping cabins

- The two Wigwam cabins are situated in a field behind the Farmhouse. This is accessed up an unmade gravel track then a short walk (10m) to the cabin across grass.
- The cabins are on a raised decking platform and then a step 300mm high into the building.
