TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Limited edition geo-coins (whilst stock lasts) will be awarded to those who return their passport fully completed and are limited to one per household. The original passport must be completed with all 46 geo-cache findings along with your personal details. Please return your form by post in order to receive your limited edition geo-coin. You must also log each of your finds on www.geocaching.com

DATA PROTECTION: Information you provide will be used by the Isle of Man Department for Enterprise in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018 and the Data Protection (Application of GDPR) Order 2018 and the Data Protection (Application of LED) Order 2018, together with any regulations made under them (Manx Data Protection legislation), to inform you of relevant marketing information. We will not share your details with any third parties.

With such a diverse natural landscape the Isle of Man, with its UNESCO Biosphere status which recognises the unique way of life that serves to preserve our nature and wildlife as well as our culture and heritage, is the perfect place to get adventurous and experience the wonders of geocaching.

Let your GPS guide you along the Millennium Way, which was established in 1979 to celebrate the Millennium year of the establishment of the Manx Parliament, Tynwald and be in with a chance of receiving a limited edition geo-coin.

Starting at Sky Hill in Ramsey, the Millennium Way follows the way of past Manx Kings, travelling a distance of 23.26 miles (37.43 kilometers) through the heart of the Isle of Man to end at Castletown Harbour and can be completed as 1 magnificent hike or over a period of days, enabling you to relax and enjoy the extraordinary surroundings.

HOW TO TAKE PART

Simply print out this Geotrail Passport and head out to find each of the 46 geocaches along the route. For each one you find write down the unique code along with the date of your find in each of the boxes. Once you have completed this passport and found all the caches, record your findings on www.geocaching.com and send your completed passport including entry form to the address below:

Visit Isle of Man, Department for Enterprise, 1st Floor, St George's Court, Upper Church Street, Douglas, Isle of Man, IM1 1EX

All completed passports will be rewarded with a limited edition geo-coin free of charge (whilst stock lasts).
