

Accessibility Statement

Rhennas Retreat is located off the A3 at the Cronk-Y-Voddy crossroads for our location map please refer to our website www.rhenassretreat.org.uk

We are located approximately 30 minutes from both the airport and Ferry Terminal and offer a pick up and drop off service for guest attending the retreat

Wheelchairs and wheelchair access

At this current time unfortunately, we are unable to accommodate wheelchair users. Corridors and doors are not wide enough and some ground around the house is uneven. Guest bedrooms are on the second floor

Car Parking

There is ample car parking to the side of the house. With security lighting coming on when dark

Garden

The house sits in an acre of garden which is available for guests to use and enjoy

Internal Accessibility

To enter the property there are 4 steps to the front door, however, if this is a concern access can be gained through the backdoor entrance. Downstairs entrance to all rooms, two sitting rooms, dining room and summer room is flat. Guest bedrooms are accessed on the second floor via a staircase with hand rail on left. Guest room has its own en-suite

Guest safety

The venue has a fire alarm system and is compliant with fire brigade requirements

Dogs and Pets

We only accept assistance dogs please contact for further details

Hours of operation

8am- 10pm daily

Additional statement

We consider diversity and equality the highest importance. We will not tolerate any discrimination harassment or victimisation

We ask that all persons attending or considering attending our retreat please contact us to discuss any requests or individual requirements that we may be able to assist with and we will always endeavour to accommodate, where this may be possible
